21. St. Simon's Island Cottage Value: $4,000

St. Simons Cottage Rental for One Week - Sleeps 6

Saturday to Saturday stay in adorable, professionally-decorated, renovated 3 bedroom, 2 bath cottage that sleeps 6! Community pool nearby, and the east end beach is just steps away!

During your week on beautiful St. Simons Island, OLPA has a couple of very special adventures for you to enjoy! The Georgia Nature Conservancy invites you inside the AltamaPlantation, a 4,000-acre nature preserve recently purchased by the state, the Nature Conservancy, the federal government, and private donors. Once the playground of wealthy Northern industrialists, today stately mansions and gardens remain, as well as old rice plantation canals, hiking trails, and scenic old growth trees and marshes. An expert guide will take you through this historic, natural treasure.

You'll also be treated to a private tour and tasting at Richland Rum Distillery in downtown Brunswick. Located in a lovely historic building, here you'll learn all about the distilling process and taste Georgia's multiple award-winning, single Estate Grown rum. You'll want to take home a bottle or two to sip while enjoying the sunset at your beach getaway.

23. House Concert by Rob Platner Trio Value: $500
House Concert to be arranged on a mutually acceptable date and time. This musical experience is particularly designed for fans of acoustic music, cello, piano, and thoughtful songcraft.

Rob Platner has been playing music in the Atlanta area for over 20 years, fronting the jam rock bands Tone Mutts and Jango Monkey. The Rob Platner Trio shows a "kinder, gentler" side of things with the focus on edgy original songs made prettier with the accompaniment of cello (David Goo) and piano (Blair Price). The trio also interprets obscure covers (Vic Chesnutt, Alejandro Escovedo, Paul Westerberg, Townes Van Zandt) and classic rock (Beatles, Phish, Rolling Stones, Tom Petty, Grateful Dead, Wilco). RP3 loves to play for quiet listening rooms, house concerts, patios, breweries, wineries, and regional venues that encourage an intimate listening experience.

49. Tibetan Handwoven Rug Value: $1,500
Handwoven wool-on-cotton Tibetan rug, approximately 4'x6'. The design is "Three Auspicious Fruits." The Three Auspicious Fruits is a popular motif in Tibetan decorative art and in this rug, the three fruits are depicted in pinks and reds, with soft green leaves and vines, against a background and border of ivory. The three fruits; the peach, pomegranate and citron symbolize happiness, longevity and wealth and are believed to bring good fortune. This rug exemplifies the sophisticated use of color and design that fine Tibetan Rugs are loved for. This rug is made from long fibred Tibetan wool that is soft to the touch, wonderful to walk on and highly durable for a lifetime of wear. Handcrafted by master weavers, this all wool Tibetan Rug was designed by InnerAsia Rugs and handwoven by craftsmen in Tibet.
Previously owned--cleaned by the experts, Sharian Carpets.
